

A close-up portrait of a woman in a military uniform, smiling warmly. She is wearing a dark blue garrison cap with a silver eagle and sergeant's chevrons insignia. Her uniform is a tan jacket with a white t-shirt underneath. On her left chest, there is a large silver eagle and pilot wings insignia, a gold circular award, and a row of colorful service ribbons. On her right chest, there is a blue circular award. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with a wooden fence.
